Berkeley 18 defeated Thirroul 16

What a fantastic game of rugby league with a very good win over Thirroul 18-16, very hard to pick our best as all the boys played very well, special mention to Ben Perrin, Zac Ford & Cody Fletcher. Keep up the good work boys.

Goals: J Lane 2, R Hall, O Namovski 2, Q Taufu, J Rowntree

Round 1 started off with bang for our boys as they put together a good game against Collies. Whilst the score line was good the most impressive thing about the game was that the boys started to work well as a team and enjoyed playing football together. Richard, Oliver and Jordan scored some great tries with some tries as well as some team tries with good off loads from Ben and Jackson. Jai and Brian were both strong in defence, making some great tackles and not letting Collies gain any advantage. Captain for the day Quinton was strong with some of his trade mark runs which put the team in good position to score. Collies managed to score a couple of tries on us with some momentary lapses in our defence; however, the boys were pretty consistent which will only improve as the season progresses.

Berkeley 10 lost to Thirroul White 16

Tries: Jayden Sullivan 2. Goals: Jayden Sullivan

Not a bad effort for the first round of the season. If we push those extra passes out wide I think we could see more points on the board, defense needs attention especially out wide, other than that we will improve as the season goes on. Well Done boys.

Berkeley 12 lost to Minto 16. Half time score: Minto 8-4

Tries: Rose Makea 2, Lorrana Child.

Players Player: Rose Makea. Coaches Award: Piaara Phillip

We came up against a very fired up and determined Port Kembla team. We moved up in a staggered defensive line and paid the price for it. Early injuries to our halves didn't help either, resulting in a very unorganized attack. We overcome those setbacks in the second half, and started to look like we were playing as a team. We need to play the first half like we played the second half. Good effort. Keep your heads up.
